

I am totally against telemarketing or solicitation calls even from companies I may already have an working relationship with. This is an invasion of my privacy. If I'm doing business with a company, I am aware of what they offer and do not need them to peddle their products and services on my personal time. Please do not allow this to happen. They can resort to other marketing means.